ASL Principal Rob Trammell Joins Builders' Exchange BOD

San Jose, Calif. – Jan 17, 2012 – Abbott, Stringham & Lynch Principal of Tax and Construction Rob Trammell, CPA, has been elected to the Builders' Exchange of Santa Clara County's board of directors for a three-year term beginning January 2012. The Builders' Exchange is a member-run, nonprofit association of licensed contractors, suppliers, and construction-related professionals founded in San Jose in 1893. According to the Builders' Exchange, their goal is to provide a central location to review current construction blueprints and to collect timely construction information.

"A key responsibility of the board is to ensure that the Builders' Exchange operates in the best interests of our members and in a fiscally responsible manner. Rob Trammell's background and skill set is a great fit for our board. Rob will also provide guidance to the board regarding the needs of the professional sector to help us better understand what kinds of services we can provide to them," said Builders' Exchange Executive Director Michael Miller.

"I have worked with construction clients for many years to address their unique needs and challenges and help position them for success. Being a member of the Builders' Exchange helps me better serve my clients, and I look forward to the opportunity to help the Builders' Exchange remain a sustainable and dynamic organization," said Rob Trammell.

The Builders' Exchange board of directors consists of 11 members representing, in addition to ASL, J.L. Shumaker Company, Commercial Door Company, Contractors License Courses, Floor Covering Association, Kier & Wright, SCVCA, South Bay Piping Labor/Mgmt., DC Law, GK Welding, and Q&A Insurance.
